

The staff of Lowerplace have identified the key attributes they would like to see in applicants for the position of Head Teacher.

1. A positive personality and demeanour
2. A good listener
3. Someone who values the importance of play and know how young children learn best
4. They must value staff
5. Be a visible presence around school for children, staff and parents
6. Have a sense of humour (dressing up optional)
7. Openness and approachability for staff and children
8. An individual who provides opportunities for staff to grow within school
9. Someone who can empower staff to make their own decisions