General TA duties

Develop a secure knowledge of the learning support needs of individual pupils.

For the pupils being supported:

- Aid their learning as effectively as possible.
- Clarify and explain instructions.
- Ensure they are able to use any equipment and materials provided.
- Assist them with their challenges, such as language, behaviour and social skills.
- Help them to concentrate on and finish work set for them.
- Meet physical needs as required when encouraging independence.
- Assist with the development and implementation of EHC plans.

Undertake structured and agreed learning activities/teaching programmes, adjusting activities according to pupil responses.

Support the use of IT and computing in learning activities, and develop pupils' competence and independence in its use.

Assist with the preparation and maintenance of school equipment and resources required to meet lesson plans or other relevant learning activities to support the delivery of an enriched curriculum.

Assist with school events, trips and activities.

Communication and coordination

Work closely with class teachers, other TAs and the SENCO to close the attainment gap between individual pupils, and groups of pupils, and their peers.

Assist the SENCO in the production of a timetable that ensures pupils are not repeatedly missing the same lesson to join interventions.

Contribute towards pupils' annual reviews and report on the effectiveness of the interventions in place.

Liaise with the SENCO regularly to review the progress of individual pupils with SEND and the overall SEND provision in the school.

Be responsible for the coordination and provision of interventions for named pupils or groups of pupils.

Provide new and ongoing support for individuals or groups of pupils who need extra interventions to achieve their personal best.

Assist with assessments, evaluate the impact of the interventions and plan next steps for individuals and groups of pupils.

Support in the production and maintenance of provision maps detailing all interventions provided by the school for named pupils and groups of pupils.

Training and knowledge

Be familiar with interventions relating to both SEND and behaviour.

Be knowledgeable about the four areas of the SEND Code of Practice: cognition and learning, sensory and physical needs, communication and interaction, and social, emotional and mental health.

Remain up-to-date with personal training and new initiatives.

Be responsible for disseminating training to other TAs and teachers as appropriate.

Act as a point of contact for other professionals, such as autism experts, speech and language therapists, specialist leaders of education and parents, as appropriate.
