Required for 1st September 2020

Golborne Community Primary School is a 'Good' community primary school located in the heart of Golborne. We are looking to appoint an outstanding Higher Level Teaching Assistant in Early Years to support the Headteacher and fantastic staff in providing high standards for the wonderful children at the school.

Our children want to be set high expectations and to be inspired to learn and they want someone who is committed to do this on a daily basis.

We would hope to work with someone who is:

- An outstanding and ambitious Higher Level Teaching Assistant
- An excellent practitioner and professional role model
- Approachable on both a personal and professional level
- Innovative and forward thinking
- Able to listen to others' points of view
- Charismatic and promotes the school to others
- Able to inspire, support, motivate and challenge others
- Open, honest and has a good sense of humour
- Supportive of and cares for our fantastic children

In return we offer you:

- An exciting and challenging professional opportunity and the chance to make a difference in a uniquely diverse setting in the borough
- A dedicated, hardworking team of teachers and support staff
- Enthusiastic, positive and happy children with good attitudes to learning and to their personal development
- Strong and positive relationships with parents, the community, a wide range of agencies and the LLG (Leigh, Lowton and Golborne) schools' partnership
- Committed and supportive governors
- A strong, effective and experienced senior leadership team
- Good achievement and standards
- An excellent level of care
- A friendly, happy and supportive atmosphere.
- A commitment to your continuous professional development

Application forms and further details are available from Mrs S Shipley (Business Manager).
